

Seattle Hearing Voices Online

Seattle Hearing Voices is a free, peer-led group for those who hear voices, have visions, or have other extreme experiences or beliefs. We support people by sharing and developing coping strategies with hearing voices and other unshared or extreme experiences, and by giving people an opportunity to discuss their experiences in a non-judgmental, safe environment. We are open to all experiencers no matter your beliefs about hearing voices or mental challenges.

We do not start from the assumption of chronic illness. We believe there is meaning and purpose for voices, visions, sounds, tactile sensations and other extreme experiences. Each person has the right to determine what this is for him or herself.

We are hosting an online and in-person hybrid group. Join us every Saturday at 12pm at Peer Seattle or join us on-line at the same day and time. See our connection information below.

We meet online every Saturday from 12PM to 1:30pm Pacific Time

The group is reachable via internet-connected computer/tablet/smartphone or landline.
